Michael decided he wants to be an assassin when he graduates. So, this year he went as “Itachi,” a Ninja psychopath from the Japanese anime “Naruto” who killed his entire family. (Is that why he is so happy? Nice ...)

Nicholas, on the other hand, prefers the good, old fashioned, American psychopath: “Joker.”

We are hoping they marry well.

“Lady Gaga” and “Alice Cooper”

Michael turns 18 with his favorite meal:
RIBS!!!

Michael is a senior at Bishop Hartley and plans to go to Ohio State next year. (Another Buckeye in the family ... and that means more TICKETS!)

Michael (seen here on the Canadian border) camped and canoed over 150 miles and portaged (“carried,” for us city folks) a 75 lb. canoe for over 20 miles over a 28 day period in Minnesota this summer in the Outward Bound Program. It was the “most difficult thing” he’s ever done ... but he still graduated with “Excellence.”

Nicholas is now 5’7” tall, 135 lbs. & 13 years old. He is in the 7th Grade at Waggoner Road Junior High School. He plays football as a defensive lineman and was named a team captain due to his enthusiasm and leadership.

Nicholas is still playing the guitar and played in this year’s Cabaret at the church. He also sang Ozzy Osborne’s “Crazy Train” ... which might not have been the best choice.

Lucy and Harry hang out ... while Otis lays on his head. (Yes, Otis is nuts.)

Ella guards the house and Sophie guards the bed. (Work, work, work!)

Everyone together for Grandpa Warrick’s 80th Birthday!
